christology is especially problematic for feminists because jesus was undeniably male and because the christian church claims him as the unique god bearer feminist christology confronts the dual tasks of explaining the significance of a male god bearer for women and creating a christological model adequate to feminist experience jacquelyn grant rehearses the development and challenges of feminist christology and argues that because it has reflected the experience of white women predominantly it fails to speak to the concerns of non white and non western women in response to this failure grant proposes a womanist theology and christology that emerge from and are adequate to the reality of contemporary black women sex race and god is the impassioned manifesto of a white feminist s reckoning with the meaning of race including her own whiteness in doing theology we should be discussing and acting on many of thistlethwaite s insights for quite some time she has made a vital contribution to the feminist theological enterprise and to the critical relationship between black and white women in it carter heyward sex race and god is a sincere attempt to listen to and learn from african american women a serious and largely successful effort to create a method that addresses differences rather than proposing wishful commonalities many women of color will find it promising a basis for dialogue the women s review of books this pivotal book illuminates a significant ongoing debate at the intersection of two fields contemporary theology and feminist studies choice thistlethwaite does what so few white feminists have done genuinely interact with and learn from the strong differences in experience and perspective between african american women and european american women the other side black christology and the quest for authenticity a philosophical appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on black theology and its attendant black christology explicitly the philosophical examination of black theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing black christology as an authentic form within christian theology this text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how black theology specifically affirms black christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic christianity significantly the racialized character of black theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race clearly the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding notably the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the african american experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race therefore black christology and the quest for authenticity a philosophical appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race summarily while this book tackles the formidable problem of christian theological subject matter nonetheless the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of christian theology subsequently while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles furthermore although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to exam african american theologians and philosophers the subject matter of black christology substantially facilitates in filling this intellectual void
